Class History

The class of 1944 entered Morley School with sixteen pupils, they were:

Richard Blake	Marsha Miller
Donald Eiben	Arnold Pye
Ronald Findley	Margo Ruhl
David Green	Maynard VanAntwerp
Keith Hay	Russell Lyle
Charles Holcomb	Donald Ankeny
Marilyn Hoppe	Elmeree Jaeger
Darrell Hora	Donald Darrow

Our First Grade teacher was Mrs. Oldfield.

During our Second Grade year we lost Maynard VanAntwerp, Russell Lyle, Elmeree Jaeger and Donald Eiben but we gained Darlene Jensen, Darlene Achenbach and Eldon Stickley so that our total remained at fifteen with Miss MacAnulty as our new Second Grade teacher.

In the fall of 1946 we found ourselves in a new room and with a new teacher whose name we soon found out to be Mrs. Frances Smith. We had one new third grader Roger Lessard, but we lost four of our team, Donald Ankeny, David Green, Darlene Jensen and Arnold Pye leaving our total at twelve.

During the Fourth year of school we had Miss Vivian Wacha for our teacher. This year we lost Marsha Miller, Eldon Stickley and Roger Lessard, but we gained Robert Conner, Sandra Hormann and Richard Stritt to leave our total the same.

In the fall of 1948 we found ourselves shifted upstairs with Mrs. Barger as our new teacher. We lost two of our classmates, Sandra Hormann and Richard Stritt, but we gained Shirley Holdren and David Mitchell to leave us with the same total.

During our Sixth Grade year we lost Darlene Achenbach and Robert Conner, but we also gained Bessie Mae Lewis and Wilda Pearson to leave us with twelve.

In the fall of 1950 we had three teachers they were; Mrs. Barger, Miss Ament and C. N. Ridout. This year we lost Bessie Mae Lewis and Wilda Pearson to leave us still with just one new boy, Eddie Wall and shrink the total to eleven.

Starting out our last grade school year we lost David Mitchell and Eddie Wall, but we gained Tom Koppenhaver and Priscilla Pillard.

The class of 1952 entered High School with Mrs. Russell, C. N. Ridout and Mr. Greenawald as our teachers. Our Ninth Grade class consisted of:

Richard Blake	Darrell Hora
Donald Darrow	Tom Koppenhaver
Ronald Findley	Priscilla Pillard
Keith Hay	Margo Ruhl
Charles Holcomb	Leo Nissen
Shirley Holdren	Mary Rundall
Marilyn Hoppe

In the Tenth Grade our teachers were Mr. Greenawald, C. N. Ridout, Mrs. Bair and Miss Miller. This year we lost Don Darrow, Tom Koppenhaver, Leo Nissen and Mary Rundall for a total of nine.

The Eleventh Grade consisted of the same members of the preceeding year. This year we lost Mrs. Bair and Mrs. Russell returned.

In the Twelfth Grade we gained Janet Taylor to leave our graduating class at ten as follows; Richard Blake, Ronald Findley, Keith Hay, Charles Holcomb, Shirley Holdren, Marilyn Hoppe, Darrell Hora, Priscilla Pillard, Margo Ruhl and Janet Taylor. We were very fortunate in having Mr. Greenawald, Mrs. Russell and H. J. Arnold as teachers.

Class Will

I, Dick Blake, will my old dates and left over girl friends to Billy Ruhl, may he have more fun with them than I did.

I, Charles Holcomb, will my height to Tommy Hinrichsen, so he can see what is going on in the world.

I, Margo Ruhl, will my big feet to any underclassman who needs a good understanding.

I, Shirley Holdren, will nothing to nobody because I haven't anybody to will anything to.

I, Priscilla Pillard, will all my old flames to anyone who hasn't caught her man yet.

I, Marilyn Hoppe, will Judy Tallman a pair of red boots so I'll know that they are hers next time..

I, Keith Hay, will my lamp and midnight oil to Francis Conner, Don't use it to fast Francis as you may run out.

I, Darrell Hora, will my ability to sit on senior girls laps to Charles Stivers. Real comfortable Charles.

I, Ronnie Findley, will my ability at making excuses for bringing his girl home late to Billy Ruhl.

I, Janet Taylor, will a typewriter brush to the next office girl to clean up the eraser dust as I didn't have time.

We, the Senior Class, will nothing to the school as we will need it all in Florida, Cuba, and New York.

We, the Senior Class, will Mr. Greenawald a new Chevi station wagon, airplane, and steamboat to take on senior trips. Whatever the trip calls for.

We, the Senior Class, will Mrs. Russell a new cushion for her car so that she can see out.

We, the Senior Class, will Mr. Arnold a dictionary to practice up on his English and also a set of statistics so he will have the statistics to prove it with.

We, the Senior Class, will Miss Miller a new P.A. system so she can be heard above the noise when trying to quiet the assembly.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class, will the basketball teams a new magnetic basketball so that they will never miss a shot. Good luck kids.

I, Margo Ruhl, will my interest in 214 Hillcrest to anyone who dares to try and get it away.

I, Shirley Holdren, will a few ounces to Judy Tallman to be distributed as she see fit.

I, Charles Holcomb, will my careful driving to Maynard VanAntwerp--lets watch out for that one handed driving.

I, Marilyn Hoppe, will my shyness to Coleen Hay. Let's cut down those giggles now Coleen.

I, Darrell Hora, will my humor to Allen Joslin. Make sure you liven up the classes down by the river.

I, Janet Taylor, will my ability to argue to Lois Stolte. Don't give in what ever you do Lois.

I, Ronnie Findley, will my ability to sing to Charles Vernon.

I, Keith Hay, will my ability to build Igloos to Larry Kaufman. It really is fun Larry.

I, Dick Blake, will my collection of plastic spoons to Bill Catlett.

We, the Senior Class, will all song, play, and literature books that do not have any senior names in them to Mrs. Russell. Looks like the school will go broke buying new books.

We, the Senior Class, will the School Board a new roof for the school.
